Andrew Cliff Award

About The Scholarship

This scholarship for UCOL students has been established in memory of Andrew Cliff who was a staff member of the Manawatū Polytechnic for over 10 years. Andrew was a senior lecturer and taught in the area of management within the Faculty of Business. He was always available for both staff and students, and was a great supporter of peer mentoring at the polytechnic.

The value of this scholarship is up to $1,000 for tuition and/or course related costs, and may be awarded to one student or divided in any way determined by the evaluation panel.
