

Graduate Women Manawātū Award

The Award

The Graduate Women Manawātū Charitable Trust Inc., associated with the Graduate Women New Zealand - Manawātū (Inc) branch, operates Academic Dress Hire in the Manawātū area. The profits from this business is disbursed to support the education of women. An award is offered annually to one or more women students enrolled at UCOL, who have excelled in terms of effort and achievement. This includes community contributions and/or evidence of leadership.

The Trust Board retains the right to adjust the sum awarded from time to time. Normally it is distributed as three awards of up to $2,000 each, but the Trustees have discretion in this matter.

Conditions

1. The Award is open to any student who identifies as female and is enrolled in a full-time degree course, of at least three years duration, at any UCOL campus. The degree must be on the New Zealand Register of Quality Assured Qualifications.
2. The recipient should be in either the third or fourth year of a degree course.
3. The recipient must be a New Zealand citizen or permanent resident and have resided in New Zealand for at least the previous two years.
4. The recipient will have shown a high level of academic achievement during her degree course to date. Evidence of effort and progress may also be considered.
5. The recipient's personal history, financial needs, academic record, particularly in terms of effort and achievement, and plans will be taken into account.
6. The Trust reserves the right not to make an award in any particular academic year and explanatory reasons may not be given.
7. The Award can be used for course-related and/or living expenses.
8. Recipients who hold other grants or awards may be awarded a sum up to the value stipulated by the regulations (if any) relating to those grants or awards.
9. The Trust welcomes a brief report from recipients following their final year of study.
10. Application forms are available from the UCOL website.
  - Completed forms can be emailed to ScholarshipPN@ucol.ac.nz or delivered to your campus Information Centre/help desk.
